STATIONERY

This week we will sell Box Papers containing 24 sheets and 24 envelopes, for 10c.

These are good values, nothing better for the price, and 15 varieties from which to make a choice.
Many of these cost considerably more than the selling price. Of these, the boxes may be slightly shopworn, but the contents will be clean and as good as ever.
We have another "barrel" of those penny pencils. You have often paid 5c for one no better.

D. F. DAVIS "The Druggist"
262 North Main St., Barre, Vt.

PREPARE FOR AUTUMN

Jack Frost is prowling around amongst us, getting in a sly nip now and then whenever he finds an opportunity. The days and weeks glide so swiftly by that we give little thought to the question of heavier weight shoes than the warm days demand and we expose ourselves to his little sting while unprepared. Baffle him a bit this Fall and Winter by anticipating his trickery and supplying yourself and family with

Shoes of a Heavier Weight.

We have all kinds, for all ages of both sexes. Our price will be just as favorable as any store in this section, and in many instances you will find a material difference in your favor.

Let us remind you that in all our departments, such as heavy double sole shoes, high cut storm boots, felt shoes and slippers for both men and women, etc., we are now showing the goods required for cooler days and nights. There is no need for Jack Frost to catch you napping if you buy from us the wearables the season demands

Do It Now and be Prepared.

Repairing promptly and neatly done.
